

What Happens Next...

- ❖ Once you have made your decision to apply to become a Companion on the Way, and filled in your form, this should go to your local leader if you have one, who will then forward it to the Contemplative Fire office. (This is to make sure that your details are accurately filed in both places.)
- ❖ If you are able to make a regular financial contribution, please fill out the accompanying Standing Order and send it to the CF Office.
- ❖ You will be invited to have a short welcome meeting with your local leader, to discuss your Rhythm of Life and anything else you want to ask about being a Companion on the Way.
- ❖ Companions are also invited to submit a 50 - 100 word self-profile, to go onto the Contemplative Fire 'members board'. This can be about you and your spiritual journey, your interests and so on. This information is circulated only to other members.
- ❖ When the Contemplative Fire office receives your form, you will also receive a letter of welcome from the Administrator, acknowledging your application and any giving.

After this you will automatically be circulated with newsletters and updates about Contemplative Fire's activities. These can also be viewed on the CF website, at www.contemplativefire.org

An invitation to become a Companion on the Way

This is a path of unknowing and knowing,
of being loved and loving,
of letting go and taking hold.

This is an invitation to a radical on the Way of Christ.

- ❖ Joining with other travelling companions for prayer in stillness, the sharing of food, stories and celebration, and a deepening of learning in the Way of Christ;
- ❖ Contributing financially on a regular basis to sustain the ongoing life of the whole Community.
